FREEHOLD - Reside are pleased to present this newly renovated barn conversion completed to an exceptional standard. Nestled in a tranquil setting with open views onto picturesque fields.

The ground floor serves the heart of the home, featuring an open-plan kitchen, living and dining area. This large, light filled space is designed for modern living with the kitchen outfitted with high-quality appliances, and an island that provides a local point for socialising while cooking. Large doors open directly onto the beautifully landscaped lawned garden with extended rural views.

The first floor is a sanctuary of relaxation, centred around the primary suite, which boasts expansive views of the surrounding fields. This space features a spacious dressing area and beautifully designed en-suite bathroom. Alongside there is a second generously sized bedroom with its own en-suite. A single bedroom and separate house bathroom complete the first floor.

To the second floor, you'll find a bedroom and en-suite.

Externally, the property enjoys a south-facing garden with a design that maximises sunlight throughout the day and a pigsty perfect for storage.

Parking is available for three cars, including an electric charging point and a communal bike store as well as visitor spaces.
