Primrose Copse, Horsham, West Sussex, RH12 5PY £315,000 Freehold

A charming two double bedroom home situated in a very popular area of Horsham. This home would suit a variety of owners. Those wishing to benefit from the close proximity to local primary schools, or perhaps professionals and first time buyers, looking for easy access to London and Gatwick. It would equally suit as a strong investment option, with two allocated parking spaces and strong demand in a sought-after area of the market. The property is nestled away, at the end of a cul-de-sac with a degree of privacy afforded to the front, being shielded from the road by the private parking area that services this small row of terraced houses. A small entrance area offers space to hang coats and take off shoes before entering into the main living room. The separate kitchen area can also accommodate a small breakfast table if desired and the back door leads into an excellent sized private south-east facing rear garden. This beautiful garden is a real highlight of the property- with a mixture of mature plants, shrubs and borders intermixed with paving stones and shingle, it has a real country garden vibe. There is ample space for outside dining and entertaining. Upstairs the property benefits from two double bedrooms, the largest of which also boasts built-in cupboard space and wardrobe, and a well appointed bathroom finishes the accommodation.
