

Kempshott Road, Horsham, West Sussex, RH12 2EX

woodlands

Positioned in the highly desirable West-side of Horsham, this appealing semi-detached home enjoys a prime position within easy walking distance of the town centre, the Rec playing fields, and well-regarded local schools including Trafalgar Infant and Greenway Primary. Offered to the market for the first time in nearly five decades, the property has been a much-loved family home and, while already thoughtfully extended to include a substantial loft conversion, presents exciting scope as a renovation project and scope to further extend - particularly to the ground floor, where neighbouring homes have successfully expanded (subject to the necessary planning consents).

A dropped kerb provides convenient off-road parking to the front, while a covered porch welcomes you into an entrance hall complete with useful understairs storage. The main reception space is both spacious and inviting, arranged as a dual-aspect lounge/dining room featuring high ceilings, a charming bay window, and a gas fireplace that creates a warm and cosy atmosphere - ideal for relaxing evenings.

To the rear, the kitchen has been modestly extended in the past, yet the true appeal lies in the outstanding potential to reimagine and enlarge this area. There is ample opportunity to create a more expansive open-plan kitchen, add a utility space, or even design a family-focused living hub, all while retaining a generously sized rear garden. The garden itself enjoys a favourable southerly aspect, ensuring it remains a key feature of the home and a wonderful space for outdoor living.

Upstairs, the first floor offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms alongside a spacious family bathroom. What was once a third bedroom has been cleverly adapted to accommodate the staircase leading to the loft conversion, where you'll find an impressive principal bedroom complete with its own en-suite shower room.

Altogether, this property represents a rare chance to acquire a home with both character and potential, allowing the next owner to tailor and transform the space to suit their own tastes, all within one of Horsham's most sought-after residential locations.

Please note: It will be the buyers responsibility to clear the property and garden of any items left by the current occupants and this should be taken into consideration when offering on the property.

Due to the low energy rating, this property is not suitable to purchase on a buy-to-let basis.
