Tucked away in a sought-after cul-de-sac within the highly regarded Marches development, this substantial detached family home combines generous proportions, flexible living space and a wonderful semi-rural setting, creating an ideal home for growing families. A driveway provides ample off-road parking alongside the integral garage, while the property's attractive frontage offers an immediate sense of kerb appeal.

Inside, the bright entrance hall creates a welcoming first impression, with glazed doors allowing natural light to flow through from the spacious sitting room. Designed with modern family life in mind, the accommodation offers an excellent level of versatility, including a separate reception room that can easily adapt as a formal dining room, family room, playroom or home office. To the rear, a generous conservatory extends the living space and enjoys delightful views across the garden, while the well-equipped kitchen/breakfast room provides the natural hub of the home with extensive worktop space, integrated appliances, a breakfast bar and plenty of room for informal dining. A separate utility room with internal access to the garage, together with a cloakroom, completes the ground floor.

The first floor continues to impress with four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a spacious principal suite with its own en-suite shower room. The remaining bedrooms are served by a family bathroom featuring both a bath and separate shower, making the layout perfectly suited to busy family life.

Outside, the private rear garden offers an excellent space to relax, entertain and enjoy time with family, with established planting and areas of lawn creating an attractive backdrop throughout the seasons. The integral garage provides excellent storage and, subject to the necessary consents, offers potential for conversion if additional accommodation is ever required.

Enjoying the best of both worlds, The Marches is surrounded by beautiful West Sussex countryside whilst remaining within easy reach of Horsham's excellent shopping, restaurants, leisure facilities, highly regarded schools and mainline rail links to London.
