This seldom available three-bedroom semi-detached home, dating from the 1960s, sits in a well-loved residential cul-de-sac in Horsham and offers an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to modernise, extend (STPP) and truly make a home their own. With parking for two vehicles, a garage and a private rear garden, the property presents excellent scope to enhance both inside and out.

The ground floor features a bright and generous front living room, its full-height window drawing in superb natural light and complemented by a gas fireplace for those colder evenings. Beyond this, a separate dining area leads seamlessly to the rear via contemporary patio doors, opening directly onto the patio and garden. The adjoining kitchen provides ample space for a range of base and wall units, currently accommodating freestanding appliances but easily adaptable for a more contemporary integrated layout if preferred. Additional storage is available beneath the stairs.

Upstairs, the layout includes three bedrooms: two comfortable doubles and a third single, currently arranged as a home office, along with a shower room completing the accommodation.

Outside, the property is approached via a private driveway with space for two cars and access to the garage.

The location is particularly appealing, offering convenient access to well-regarded schools, transport links, local shops and two nearby parks - ideal for families and commuters alike.
