DC Lane are delighted to present this exquisite South facing penthouse, set within the iconic Grade II listed Barclays Bank Chambers in the very heart of the city. Blending contemporary design with historic character, this spectacular apartment offers the ultimate city living experience, just moments from the bustling City Centre, breathtaking Plymouth Hoe and the vibrant Barbican with its curated selection of cafés, restaurants, and bars.

Accessed via secure entry doors into a beautifully appointed communal hallway with lift and stair access, this fourth floor apartment immediately impresses with a welcoming hallway featuring a video entry system and discreet storage. Double doors open into a spectacular open-plan living, dining and kitchen space, awash with natural light from floor to ceiling windows. The living area extends seamlessly onto a private balcony – the perfect setting to enjoy panoramic views of Armada Plaza and the city skyline.

The new bespoke kitchen is a triumph of both style and function, with abundant storage, premium integrated appliances and sophisticated finishes, ideal for entertaining or quiet culinary indulgence. Both double bedrooms are generously proportioned and bathed in light, with the master suite further enhanced by a sleek en-suite shower room. A refined family bathroom completes this exceptional home. Furthermore residents will appreciate the ease of an external storage room, conveniently situated on the same floor.

With an allocated parking space and offered with no onward chain, this penthouse presents a unique opportunity to acquire a residence of distinction in one of Plymouth’s most sought after locations. Elegant, contemporary, and utterly captivating – a viewing is highly recommended.
