This beautifully designed basement apartment benefits from its own private entrance, with steps leading down into a welcoming hallway. Directly ahead is a superb open plan lounge and kitchen area, creating a versatile space for relaxing, dining and entertaining. The contemporary kitchen is complemented by a generous utility area positioned behind, providing excellent additional storage.

The spacious double bedroom benefits from a separate walk in wardrobe, providing ample storage, while the stylish Jack and Jill bathroom is finished to a contemporary standard and offers convenient access from both the bedroom and the utility area.

A particularly impressive feature is the purpose-designed mechanical heat ventilation system, specifically designed for basement apartments. The system draws in fresh air while extracting stale air, helping maintain a comfortable internal temperature and providing continuous ventilation.
