DC Lane are delighted to offer to the market this well presented south facing apartment situated in Mildren Way an impressive purpose built development.

The property is ideally located within the regenerated area of Devonport with walking distance to the City Centre and the maritime attractions that Plymouth has to offer.

Positioned on the second floor with secure entry phone system the internal accommodation offers an entrance hallway with storage cupboards leading through to an open plan living space with direct access via French doors to a wrap around balcony, a lovely place to sit and enjoy a beverage of choice whilst benefitting from far reaching views of the local area and beyond to Cornwall. The modern kitchen also benefits from a dining area. In addition, there are two bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.

We believe this property lends itself to a wide audience including first time buyers looking for well-proportioned and spacious accommodation or investors wanting to take advantage of such a popular location and an excellent yield.

Offered with no onward chain a viewing of this superb apartment is highly recommended.
