DC Lane are delighted to present to the market this superb Victorian mid-terraced home, perfectly positioned in the ever popular residential area of St Judes. Just a short walk from the City Centre, with excellent access to the Embankment and Devon Expressway, this property enjoys a highly convenient location.

Lovingly renovated in recent years and freshly redecorated, this charming family home blends period character with modern comforts.

The ground floor accommodation comprises a welcoming lounge with a bay window, feature fireplace and an array of period details. An elegant geometric arch connects the lounge to the dining room, creating a wonderful open plan feel that flows seamlessly. To the rear, a well appointed kitchen with ample cabinetry has direct access to the garden with newly installed south facing decked terrace providing the perfect spot for al fresco dining and a pedestrian gate leads to the rear service lane.

To the first floor there are three bedrooms (two doubles and a single) served by a well appointed bathroom with shower over the bath, complemented by a separate WC for added convenience. Flooded with natural light throughout, the property further benefits from gas central heating and double glazing.

This splendid home will appeal to both families and couples seeking space, style and a superb location.

A viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all this property has to offer.
