DC Lane are delighted to offer to the market this well presented and generously proportioned front facing apartment in the sought after location of Warleigh Village on the northern fringes of Plymouth.

The property is ideally located off Clittaford Road in Southway, popular for its schools and close proximity to Derriford Hospital, Superstore and Dartmoor National Park.

Positioned on the second floor with secure entry phone system the internal accommodation offers an entrance hallway with loft storage, cupboard and utility cupboard housing a washing machine, leading through to a large open plan living space with defined separate living and dining areas benefitting from outstanding, elevated far reaching views across to Kit Hill in Cornwall. The modern kitchen is complete with base and wall units and includes a pull out tap. In addition, there are two bedrooms, en-suite shower room to master and a modern family bathroom. The property benefits from an allocated parking space at the rear of the building.

We believe this property lends itself to a wide audience including first time buyers looking for well-proportioned and spacious accommodation or investors wanting to take advantage of such a popular location with an excellent potential yield.

Offered with no onward chain a viewing of this superb apartment is highly recommended.
