Notes

The tenure is leasehold, with a lease of 999 years from 1961. Each apartment has a resident parking permit plus an additional permit for guests although spaces are not reserved.

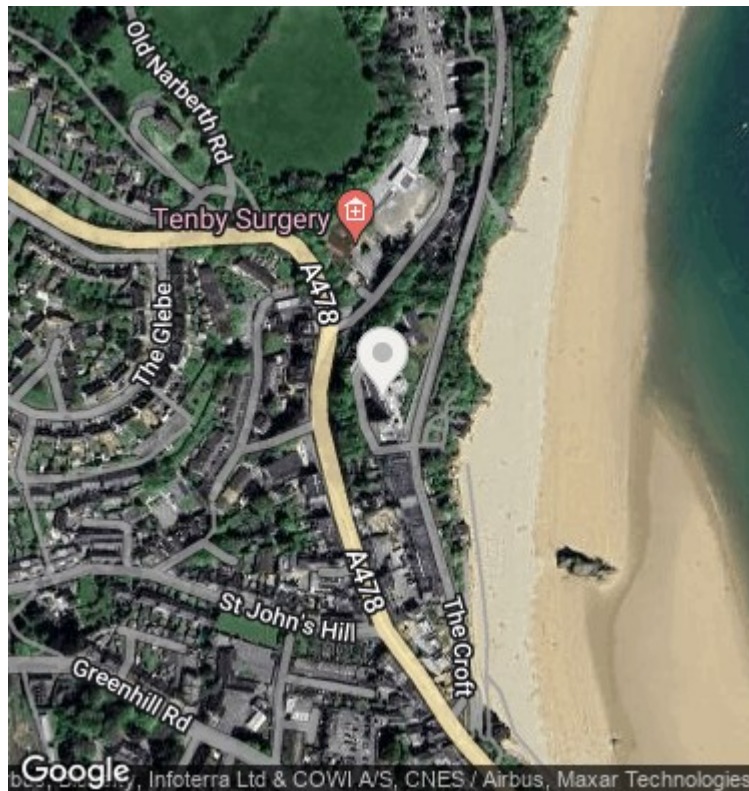

The ground rent is £9.50 per 6 months. Service charge & sinking fund is run in arrears, payable every 6 months. The service charge for the period January to June 2024 was higher than usual due to 'one-off' expenses including re-rendering of the block, new fire alarm system, replacement of windows and doors, and contribution was £2138.07.

Holiday letting allowed. Pets permitted with consent from the freeholder.

uPVC double glazing. Electric heaters and hot water heater.

The Pembrokeshire County Council Tax Band is D - approximately £1921.51 for 2024/25.

We are advised that mains electric, water and drainage is connected to the property.

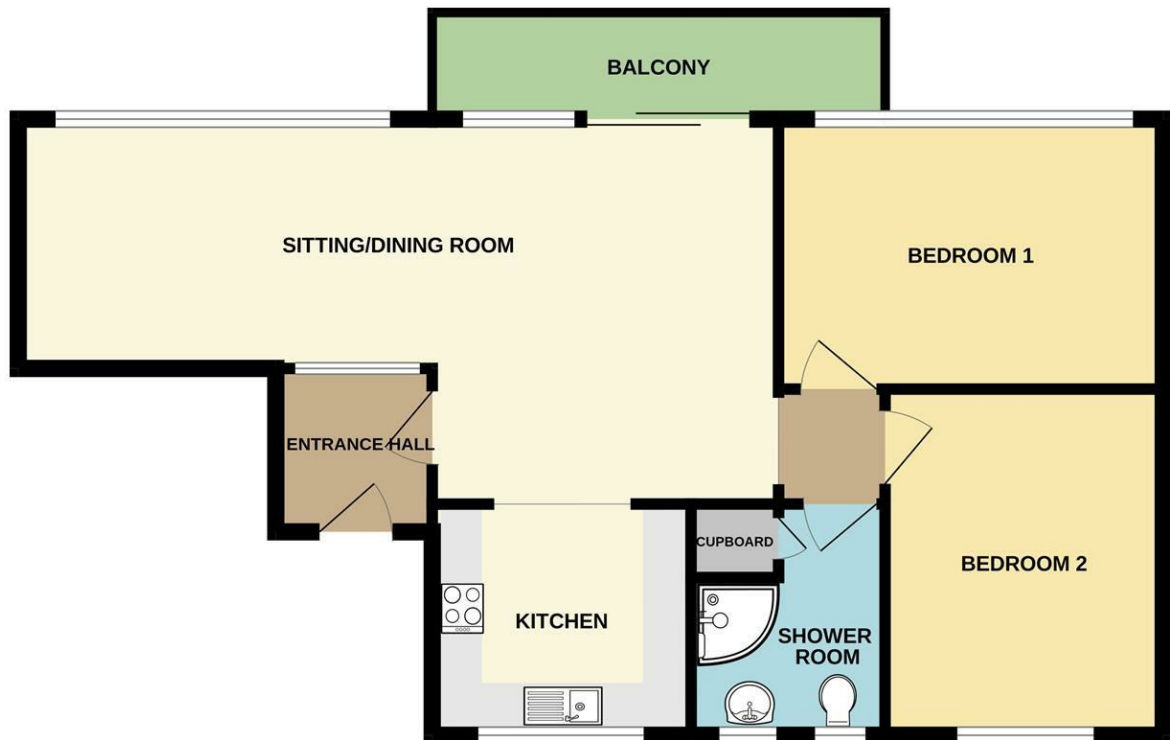

From our office head up through Tudor Square to the North Beach Parade, drive over the mini roundabout and turn right at the zebra crossing. Croft Court is approximately 250 yards on the left-hand side.
