Parsonage Farm Cottage The Old Parsonage £175,000

Inn House

Tenby Freehold

SA70 01D 5 2 1

An exciting opportunity to take on a renovation project in the popular village of St Florence. The property has a large garden, and parking for several cars. The site was a pub for many years, and there are now 2 properties on its footprint.

There are spacious rooms, original character features, and a newly built extension to the front. With plans for 5 bedrooms, 2 reception rooms, and large kitchen/diner, it will be a very impressive house upon completion.

The house is unfinished and is offered for sale as seen, leaving the purchaser to complete the build to their spec, with choice of layout, fittings, and final design. There is full planning permission granted, and this is extant due to works having started.
