3 Blissmore Lane, Weyhill, Offers In The Region Of £290,000

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION BY Miss Molly Scruton

This immaculately presented and rarely available two double bedroom terraced home blends modern luxury with practical living, set within a quiet cul-de-sac in a highly sought-after village. It enjoys a strong community feel while being just moments from the popular Fairground Café, independent craft shops and convenient local transport links.

A key highlight is the stylish high-specification kitchen, complete with Cuba Quartz worktops and a full range of premium integrated NEFF appliances, including a slide & hide oven, combi microwave/grill, dishwasher, fridge, freezer, induction hob and boiling water tap. Subtle under-counter lighting enhances both functionality and finish.

To the rear, the south-east facing landscaped garden offers a private, low-maintenance outdoor space—perfect for relaxing on the decking. Gated rear access, ambient string lighting and a useful storage shed add further appeal.

Upstairs, the property features a spacious family bathroom and two bright double bedrooms with countryside views, bespoke blackout blinds, and a 'semi' walk-in wardrobe to the master. The boarded loft provides excellent additional storage and potential for conversion to a third bedroom with en-suite (subject to planning).

Further benefits include off-street parking for three vehicles, a conservatory for extra living space, a Vaillant combination boiler with gas central heating, Hive smart heating with app control, and a dedicated upstairs laundry cupboard. Beautifully maintained and refurbished throughout, this freehold home is offered chain free and move-in ready, with selected furnishings available if desired.

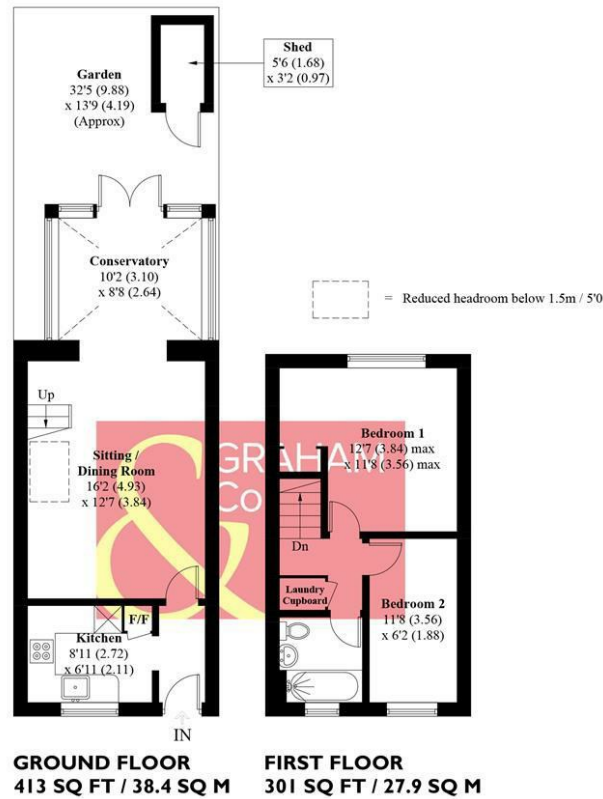

Perfectly positioned in the heart of the village, the property offers exceptional convenience while retaining a peaceful, tucked away feel. The popular Fairground Craft Centre is just 20 metres away, home to a charming café, hair and beauty salons, florist, barbers and a variety of village hall classes and community events. Everyday essentials are equally close by, with a Londis, a fuel station, an MOT garage, an Indian restaurant, a well regarded farm shop, the infamous Weyhill Kebab, a highly rated doggy day-care centre, and a park with an enclosed children's playground all within a 5 minute walk. For commuters, connections are superb - the A303 is just 4 minutes away, the train station 7 minutes, and the M3 can be reached in approximately 14 minutes, with Heathrow Airport under an hour's drive. PureCym is also conveniently located just 5 minutes away. With beautiful countryside views, the area boasts scenic local walks and welcoming thatched roof country pubs serving excellent food, along with a popular garden centre, making it ideal for those who enjoy an active yet relaxed lifestyle. Enjoying a uniquely private setting alongside the church grounds, the property benefits from a peaceful outlook with limited overlooking neighbours, creating a wonderful sense of space and tranquillity rarely found in such a convenient location. Homes in this area very rarely become available – early viewing is advised to avoid disappointment.
