Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac in sought-after Anna Valley, this established red-brick family home offers generous living space, a double garage and a leafy, secluded plot with excellent scope to personalise.

A welcoming entrance hall leads to two reception rooms, including a full-width sitting room that opens to the garden, and a separate dining room at the front. The fitted kitchen is supported by a useful utility room with outside access, while a ground-floor cloakroom completes the layout.

Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged around a central landing and served by a family bathroom. There's ample built-in storage and the house is ready for a light refresh, giving buyers the chance to update to taste.

Outside, the rear garden enjoys a high degree of privacy with mature borders, lawn and a broad paved terrace—an ideal canvas for landscaping. A driveway provides off-street parking and leads to a detached double garage.

The village of Abbotts Ann lies to the west has two public houses, village shop and well regarded village school. There is another village school in Goodworth Clatford which again has a extremely good reputation. There is a bus stop close to the property with regular services into Andover, about 1½ miles away, which has a comprehensive range of shopping, educational and leisure facilities, as well as a mainline railway station providing fast services to London Waterloo in just over one hour. The cathedral cities of Salisbury and Winchester are both within half an hour's drive away and the A303 is close at hand allowing convenient road access to London and the West Country.
