Stunning Character Home – Former Public House Conversion, High-Quality Finish, Village Centre Location

A rare opportunity to acquire this beautifully converted former public house, now transformed into a stunning and exceptionally spacious three-bedroom family home. Blending character features with contemporary styling, the property offers generous and flexible living accommodation and is finished to a high standard throughout.

At the heart of the home is a spectacular open-plan living kitchen area providing an impressive space for entertaining and family life. The layout also includes an Orangery, offering additional living space, a utility room and cloakroom/wc.

The first floor provides three bedrooms, including a superb master bedroom suite featuring a dressing area and en-suite. The remaining bedrooms are well proportioned and served by a modern family bathroom.

Outside, the property benefits from parking for 3–4 cars, a notable advantage for such a central village location, and a spacious enclosed rear garden with patio area.

Situated in the heart of the village, this unique home offers convenience to local amenities while retaining its sense of privacy and character. An exceptional and distinctive residence that must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
