Nestled on a charming corner plot in the heart of the popular village of Kings Cliffe, this modern four-bedroom detached built buy Charles Church combines style, comfort, and practicality for contemporary family living. The property features a stunning open-plan kitchen-dining room—an inviting space for family gatherings and entertaining friends—alongside a spacious living area adorned with stylish, contemporary décor.

The home offers a master bedroom with an en-suite shower room, three additional bedrooms, and a beautifully refitted family bathroom, providing versatile accommodation for growing families. Outside, the property enjoys a secluded rear garden perfect for play, relaxation, and alfresco dining, while the spacious front garden enhances the property's curb appeal. A garage and off-road parking for a couple of vehicles provide convenience and security, ideal for busy family life.

Elevated views over the village and surrounding countryside complete the picture, offering a serene backdrop to everyday living. With its combination of modern interiors, practical features, and a desirable village location, this is a rare opportunity for families seeking a home where style, comfort, and functionality meet.
