Gun End House

Heaton Rushton Spencer,
Macclesfield, SK11 0SJ

Nestled in the picturesque hamlet of Gun End in the Peak District National Park, this remarkable three bedroom detached house, originally a Methodist chapel converted in 1986, includes expansive gardens and triple garage with potential to convert above (subject to consents). With three spacious reception rooms and three well-appointed bedrooms, the property ensures comfort for family and guests alike, along with three bathrooms that cater to the needs of a busy household.

Set on a generous plot, the property is surrounded by beautifully maintained gardens, an enchanting orchard, and naturally fed ponds, creating a serene and tranquil environment. The expansive outdoor space is perfect for those who appreciate nature and outdoor living, providing a wonderful setting for family gatherings, quiet moments of reflection or the keen gardener.

In addition to its charming interior and stunning exterior the beautiful rural location enhances the appeal of this home, providing a peaceful retreat while still being conveniently located for nearby towns such as Leek and Macclesfield. With a supportive close community and two local primary schools on the doorstep along with footpaths in every direction, the location is second to none.

This exceptional property is a rare find, combining historical charm with so many original features maintained, alongside modern comforts in a stunning rural setting. It is ideal for those seeking a unique home that offers both space and tranquillity.

VIEWING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

Directions

From Leek take the Macclesfield Road out of Leek towards Macclesfield after approx 2 miles turn right onto Leek Old Road for 0.5 miles approx until you need to turn right again onto Rudyard Road. Continue along Rudyard Road for approximately 2 miles and the property will be found on the left just before the road bends to the left.
