STEPHENSON BROWNE

This property situated on Seabridge Road is a stunning home that blends modern luxury with beautiful original character. From the landscaped, tiered frontage to the elegant interior, the property feels both high-end and warmly inviting.

The entrance hall immediately sets the tone with its original parquet flooring and tasteful décor. The front living room is a bright and cozy space, enhanced by a charming bay window and an original feature fireplace that adds timeless character.

The home flows into the L-shaped open-plan kitchen and dining area, an impressive space combining modern design with classic features. The dining area enjoys another original fireplace and French doors to the garden, while the newly refitted kitchen offers an induction hob, electric oven, integrated appliances, generous workspace and a lovely bay window over the sink.

At the rear, the storm porch provides practical access to the outside, along with the utility room and a handy downstairs W.C.

Upstairs, all three bedrooms are a great size, with bedrooms one and two being especially generous. Bedroom one benefits from a built-in wardrobe. The family bathroom is complemented by a separate W.C., adding convenience to the first floor.

The rear garden is a superb outdoor space with a decked seating area, a large lawn, and a brick-paved pathway leading to the pedestrian gate and graveled off-road parking. The front garden is landscaped and offers an additional paved seating area.

Fully renovated in 2021 with new electrics, plumbing, boiler, kitchen and bathroom, yet thoughtfully retaining its beautiful original character, this home feels luxurious, homely and truly special.
