Offers In The Region Of £495,000

DESCRIPTION

This stunning four-bedroom detached former coach house in the charming village of Butterton, Newcastle, offers a rare opportunity to own a home where classic character meets modern luxury.

Approached via electric double gates, the property features a large driveway for multiple vehicles and a separate gate providing direct access to the front door. Set on a generous, private plot, the beautifully landscaped gardens include two large patio areas, accessed from the kitchen and dining room, alongside an oriental-style bridge, waterfall, and mist jets that create a magical evening ambience.

Inside, the home boasts two spacious reception rooms, including a lounge with brick-built fireplace and log burner, and a versatile dining room. The breakfast kitchen is fitted with granite surfaces, a range-style double oven, American-style fridge freezer, wine cooler, and high-end appliances. Upstairs, four generous bedrooms include two en suites, while each bathroom features travertine tiling with underfloor heating and colour-changing Bluetooth mirrors that play music and charge devices. The family bathroom impresses with a circular bath, dual basins, heated towel alcove, and an over-bath networked mirror TV. Security and convenience are fully integrated, with alarm, CCTV, broadband-enabled features, and a Nest thermostat. With gated access, extensive driveway parking, and beautifully designed gardens, this property combines luxury, style, and practicality.
