STEPHENSON BROWNE

It is with great pride Stephenson Browne offer for sale this fabulously proportioned detached family home on Wisterdale Close. Only a stones throw from a great variety of schooling, amenities and walks, this is a home for you and your family to enjoy for many, many years.

Originally constructed as a five bedroom home, the smallest room has been opened up, extending the space available to the principal suite, allowing an abundance of extra room for wardrobes, a dressing area or perhaps an en-suite. The possibilities are endless!

The ground floor is comprised of three reception rooms, namely a living room, overlooking the wonderful rear garden, a dining room and separate study. This home truly caters for modern living, offering the space for a home office, as well as plenty of room for all of the family to enjoy. The kitchen features oak worksurfaces, complimenting the flooring, in addition to a separate utility space with ground floor W.C. off.

To the first floor, as mentioned there is a large principal suite, with a further three bedrooms, all of which are able to accommodate a double bed. The family bathroom offers a bath with separate shower cubicle, as well as a multitude of low level cabinetry.

One of the standout features at Wisterdale Close is its rear garden, a private space with a plethora of room to offer. The lawn spans across the back of the plot, and leaves plenty of room for outside furnishings and storage facilities including a wooden pergola, shed and a workshop. You will also find a separate seating area - there really is something for everyone! To the front of the property, there is off road parking for two vehicles.

Crewe, located in Cheshire, is a town steeped in rich history and vibrant culture, offering several landmarks of interest. Queens Park, a beautifully maintained Victorian park, is the heart of Crewe's green spaces. Renowned for its ornamental gardens, scenic lake, and charming bandstand, it is a popular spot for relaxing strolls and community events.

The Crewe Lyceum Theatre, a historic venue dating back to 1881, hosts a diverse range of performances, from plays and musicals to comedy shows. This cultural gem is a key part of the town's entertainment scene.

Crewe is home to several major employers that play a significant role in the town's economy. Bentley Motors is perhaps the most iconic, with its headquarters and factory based in the town. As a world-renowned luxury car manufacturer, Bentley not only employs thousands of local residents but also attracts engineering talent from across the globe.

Leighton Hospital is another key employer, providing vital healthcare services to the region and offering a range of jobs in medical, administrative, and support roles.

The town's historical connection to the rail industry remains strong, with Crewe Railway still serving as a major employer. Network Rail and other rail-related companies maintain significant operations in the area, supporting jobs in engineering, logistics, and transport. These employers, spanning automotive, healthcare, and rail, form the backbone of Crewe's economy and contribute to the town's distinctive character.

For railway enthusiasts, the Crewe Heritage Centre is a must-visit. This fascinating museum celebrates the town's deep-rooted connection with the railway industry, featuring historic locomotives, interactive exhibits, and even a signal box experience. Together, these landmarks capture the essence of Crewe's unique heritage and community spirit.
