A delightful two bedrooomed semi detached cottage is neutrally decorated throughout. With two spacious reception rooms, modern fitted kitchen, rear porch, three piece white bathroom suite to the ground floor. To the first floor there are two double bedrooms and an additional benefit of a well maintained cellar with access between the reception rooms.

Externally to the front of the property there is a tidy enclosed fore garden, whilst to the rear there is a low maintenance well kept patio garden, with gate leading to local parking (reduced charges for resident).

Alsager is a popular Cheshire town with a well-regarded high street offering supermarkets, independent shops, cafés and everyday amenities. The town also provides access to a number of local primary and secondary schools, making the area suitable for those seeking educational facilities within a reasonable distance.
