The spacious entrance hall is a particular feature of this family home with a double-height glass frontage and solid oak and glass Neville Johnson staircase. The sitting room is just off the entrance hall; this grand room features an inglenook-style feature fireplace and patio doors leading to the rear garden with an undercover seating area. The dining room offers plenty of space for the family and has dual access points. The kitchen is fitted with wall and base oak units, granite worktops, and a Rangemaster cooker, with a large central island. From the kitchen, there is an opening into a large and light conservatory providing a further dining and sitting area. The large utility is also set to the back of the kitchen which has rear access to the garden. The boot room joins the main house to the altered and extended part of the property. This
