Location

Approximately thirteen miles south of Gloucester lies the picturesque Severnside village of Arlingham. The centre of the village is built around The Cross. There is a Post Office and The Red Lion pub, which serves meals and local beers. There is also a riverside pub, There is a coffee shop in the village which is open Friday to Sunday. Around The Cross lies the majority of the houses though farms and other dwellings are scattered throughout the Parish. A short drive is the popular Saul, a rural village that is adjoining the sought after village of Frampton on Severn. Within Frampton there is a village shop, post office and primary school, as well as an array of beautiful eateries. There are a range of pleasant walks nearby, as well as the Saul Marina providing mooring for boat enthusiasts as well as a number of family events. The area is well placed for easy access to the M5 motorway being approximately 6 miles to junction 13.
