Outside

The property is accessed via a gravelled driveway which provides off-road parking for several vehicles as well as mature shrubbery and trees. There is a single garage which can be accessed via the electric roller doors or internally via the porch. The rear walled garden provides multiple seating areas and is not overlooked. A decked seating area provides the sunshines, whilst you can enjoy some shade on the patio with electric awning. There are two sheds at the property, providing extra storage as well as raised planters. There is gated access to both sides of the property.

Location

Approximately thirteen miles south of Gloucester lies the picturesque Severnside village of Arlington. The centre of the village is built around The Cross. There is a Post Office and The Red Lion pub, which serves meals and local beers. There is also a riverside pub, The Old Passage, which offers panoramic views of Newnham-on-Severn on the opposite bank. Around The Cross lies the majority of the houses though farms and other dwellings are scattered throughout the Parish. A short drive is the popular Saul, a rural village that is adjoining the sought after village of Frampton on Severn. Within Frampton there is a village shop, post office and primary school, as well as an array of beautiful eateries. There are a range of pleasant walks nearby, as well as the Saul Marina providing mooring for boat enthusiasts as well as a number of family events. The area is well placed for easy access to the M5 motorway as well as Gloucester, Cheltenham, Stroud.
