Believed to date back to the 15th Century, Bumble Cottage is a unique country home with a picture perfect, thatched roof. The home has a rich history with the brick wing of the property being a later addition in the Victorian era. The home is bursting with character features to include an inglenook fireplace, beams and beautiful stripped wooden floors. The grounds of the home are vast and wide and include many mature trees and vistas.

Ground Floor

Entering the home via the solid wood front door, you arrive into the entrance hall with doors leading off to the ground floor accommodation and stairs to the first floor.

To the right of the entrance hall is a charming country kitchen which boasts original quarry tiles to the floor and beams to the ceiling. There is a range of freestanding and built-in kitchen cupboards providing ample storage space. There is a Range cooker and space for a dishwasher and fridge-freezer. There is plenty of room for a dining table to gather the family and a generous sized pantry cupboard. Windows to three sides offer glorious views over the mature gardens surrounding the home and a door takes you outside.

Leading back through the property and to the Victorian wing, you will find a spacious living room with original stripped wooden floors. An inglenook fireplace with inset woodburning stove creates a lovely focal point to the room and dual aspect windows offer views over the gardens.

Completing the ground floor accommodation is the family bathroom
