Kenworthy

Built in the 1800's, Kenworthy is a handsome Victorian home in the heart of the village of Longhope. The large family home boasts four reception rooms and five double bedrooms boasting a range of character features to include sash windows, wide panelled doors, cornices, decorative tiled flooring, service bells and fireplaces in nearly all of the rooms. In addition to the home there is a charming annexe which offers a fantastic additional income stream or superb guest accommodation.

Entrance Hall

Entering the home through the solid wood front door with glazing surround, you arrive in the entrance hall. The hallway boasts original decorative floor tiles alongside the charming servants bells on the wall. Doors lead off to the ground floor reception rooms and stairs take you to the first floor. At the far end of the hall is a solid wood door which leads out to the private drive and access to the annexe.

Living Room

At the front of the home and part of the later Victorian addition are two generous reception rooms. To the left of the entrance hall is the living room, boasting high ceilings with decorative coving and a large sash window overlooking the garden. There is a stunning open fireplace with marble surround and tiled hearth plus the original servants bells to either side. Within the alcove is a practical storage cupboard.

Sitting Room

To the right of the entrance hall is an equally well-proportioned reception room boasting glorious views over the garden through the large sash window. A striking marble fireplace with tiled hearth creates a lovely focal point to the room and bespoke shelving offers space for storing books and such like.

Dining Room

An opening from the sitting room leads you through to the dining room. The room benefits from windows to two sides and also enjoys the garden views from the sitting room. A large chimney breast houses a multi-fuel woodburning stove with wooden mantle and beams to the ceiling with original hooks display the historical use of the room.

Kitchen

An opening from the dining room leads to the well-appointed kitchen with the original 'maids' stove'. There is a range of base and eye-level units with modern, quartz worktops and decorative blue tiles to the walls. There is a range of integrated appliances to include an eye-level Neff double oven, Siemens induction hob, dishwasher, below counter fridge and a stainless steel sink with mixer tap set beneath a window overlooking the rear aspect.

Study

The study is positioned in a quiet corner of the home with a large sash window with original working shutters, overlooking the lane. This flexible space has room for a range of furniture.

Utility

A practical utility room with laminate flooring offers ample additional storage space. The room houses the OSO boiler and there is room for an American style fridge freezer and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer.

Cloakroom

Completing the ground floor accommodation is a cloakroom with a WC, wash hand basin and window to the rear aspect.

First Floor

Landing

Stairs with a decorative balustrade lead up to the spacious landing. There is a large sash window overlooking the front aspect and two ceiling hatches granting access to the loft space.

Bedroom One

The principal bedroom is positioned to the front of the home and boasts glorious views over the front aspect through the original sash window. The room benefits from a range of fitted wardrobes and there is the original cast iron fireplace with wooden surround.

En-Suite

A door leads to the modern, part-tiled en-suite shower room comprising a double shower cubicle with rainfall shower head, WC, vanity wash hand basin and LED touch sensitive mirror above.

Bedroom Two

With views overlooking the front of the home, this large double room boasts a cast iron fireplace with wooden surround and a built-in cupboard in the alcove.

Bedroom Three

Leading back down the lading, bedroom three is another large double room with a cast iron fireplace, built-in cupboard and a window offering rural views.

Bedroom Four

A charming cast iron fireplace is positioned in the corner of this double room and a sash window overlooks the side aspect.

Bedroom Five

Bedroom five is a double room and features beams to the ceiling and a window overlooking the rear aspect.

Shower Room

The modern shower room boasts a large walk-in shower with glazed screen and rainfall shower head. There is a wall mounted vanity unit with storage drawer, an LED mirror and a window to the rear aspect.

WC

Completing the first-floor accommodation is a cloakroom with WC and wash hand basin plus a window to the rear aspect.

Self Contained Annexe

Open-Plan Kitchen/Living Room

Steps lead up to the solid wood door which welcomes you into the open-plan room. This impressive space boasts a double-height, pitched ceiling with Velux window, flooding the room with natural light. The space has been cleverly designed to incorporate a cozy living area with window overlooking the front aspect and a well-appointed kitchen with a range of units, work surface and a stainless steel sink unit with mixer tap.

Bedroom and Shower Room

A staggered staircase leads you to the first floor where you will find a double bedroom with window overlooking the rear aspect and a shower room with shower cubicle, WC and wash hand basin.

Outside

The south/west facing garden is bordered with a stone wall and has been beautifully landscaped to create areas dedicated to relaxing and enjoying the sun at all times of the day. A winding graveled path leads from the gated access on Church Road via flower beds packed with an abundance of mature shrubs and plants taking you up to the front door of the home. There is a lawned area along with a charming patio adjacent to the home, ideal for alfresco dining. Within the garden is a newly refurbished octagonal summer house and a garden shed constructed in stone with glass windows. The private drive can be accessed off Station Lane and offers parking for four vehicles. Within the driveway is a covered stone carport providing additional parking and storage and benefiting from power and lighting. Adjacent to the carport is a store room which houses the oil tank and a further store room is situated at the rear of the home.

Location

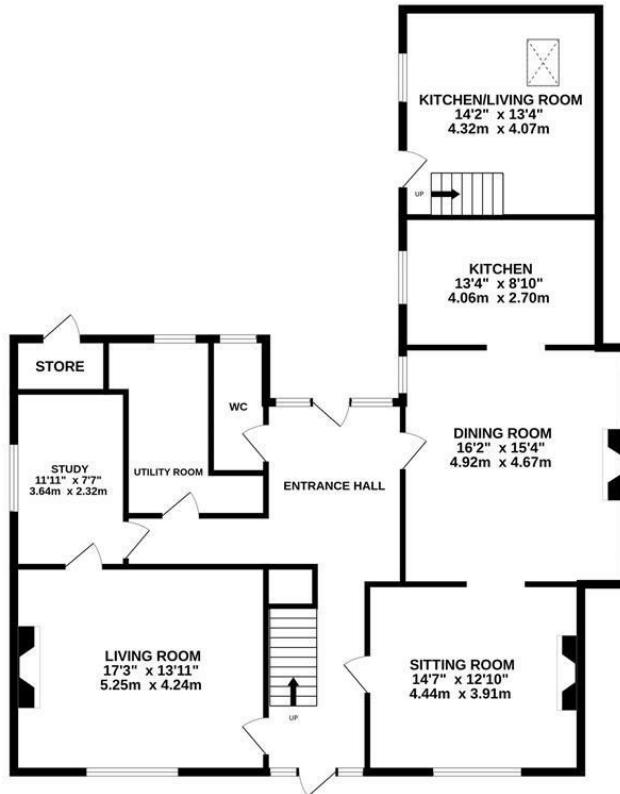

Longhope, a small rural village on the outskirts of the Forest of Dean holds a lively community for all walks of life. Benefiting from a community post office, village store, artisan bakery and primary school along with two local pubs. There is secondary schooling within the local towns of Mitcheldean and Newent.
