Charnock Bates

A rare Cragg Vale gem

Approached through iron gates and set within 7.28 acres of land, Spa Laithe Farm is a detached three-bedroom dormer bungalow with detached garage, paddocks, stables, and a wealth of character.

The paddocks, gardens and parking areas are predominantly flat land – a rarity in this valley. On the market for the first time in over a quarter of a century, this unique property combines rural tranquillity within easy reach of local amenities and network connections via road and rail. It not only provides a much-loved home but also offers excellent scope for further development, with the opportunity to extend the existing building, reconfigure the layout, or even redevelop the site entirely (subject to the necessary planning consents). The property is reached along a private lane which has a well-maintained tarmacadam surface.

The property has a rich sense of history, including the “Spaw Sunday” events, cobbles sourced from the original set of the TV programme Coronation Street and a connection to the Cragg Coiners. From its spring-fed pond and wildlife-rich grounds, Spa Laithe Farm offers the lifestyle many people dream of: A peaceful retreat immersed in nature with woodland, landscaped private gardens, with space for horses, hobbies and family life.

Integrated appliances include a fridge, NEFF oven, NEFF hob and extractor. Dual-aspect windows look through to the conservatory, ensuring a light-filled space.

Uniquely divided into a corridor and separate room, both with exposed stone walls. The corridor has ample space to be utilised as a 'Boot Room' and leads via French doors to the raised patio; while the main room enjoys a vaulted solid ceiling – ideal as a garden room or entertaining space. The conservatory could also lend itself to being a useful dining area extension to the current kitchen layout.

Landscaped gardens and grounds

Approached via a long driveway lit by traditional lampposts and over an Ivy-draped stone bridge with a brook running underneath, Spa Laithe Farm is enveloped in nature. The tarmacadam and cobbled driveway provides extensive parking – with space for approximately eight cars on the tarmacadam, approximately six on the cobbles and one in the detached garage.

The grounds are a true highlight, with tiered terraces perfect for alfresco dining, external lighting, gazebo, lawned areas, fruit trees, shrubs and woodland that runs down to the picturesque Cragg Brook – ownership extending to its midpoint. The Cragg Brook is believed to contain fish. A recently relined spring-fed pond, two outdoor taps and a shed add further practicality.

Equestrian buyers will value the two paddocks and stables with water supply, offering excellent facilities on rare level land.

Wildlife abounds – from owls and deer to badgers – ensuring an ever-changing seasonal landscape for nature lovers.

Cragg vale spa

Cragg Vale Spa is believed to be at least 300 years old and is situated in the grounds of Spa Laithe Farm. John Billingsley, a local historian, explained the background to the use of spas locally:

'It was the custom in early spring for people to gather at the spa to drink the water and cleanse themselves of their winter ailments, and to give them strength to face the coming year. Whether or not the water had a medicinal effect is debateable, but the waters were a way of celebrating the passage of winter and the beginning of spring.'

To this day, the first Sunday in May is known as 'Spaw Sunday', where locals continue the tradition of gathering to bless the spa water, whilst enjoying music and dancing.
