Charnock Bates

A hilltop haven with panoramic views and endless potential

Set high above the iconic Shibden Valley, 10 Blake Hill End Farm is a remarkable detached residence offering extensive family accommodation, sweeping views, and a host of lifestyle-enhancing spaces.

With origins rooted in West Yorkshire character – think mullion windows, exposed beams, and stone fireplaces – this exceptional home also comes with a double garage, barn with conversion potential, and an idyllic garden retreat complete with a hot tub.

Ground floor

Step into the farmhouse kitchen, where rustic charm meets modern practicality. Mullion windows frame pastoral views, while exposed beams add warmth and authenticity. A useful utility room sits just off the kitchen – more modern in white gloss and easily adaptable as a second kitchen.

A central hallway links a cosy lounge with a multi-fuel stove and two light-filled games rooms – one featuring a classic wooden bar and the other with external access, perfect for entertaining or conversion.

First floor

Upstairs offers six double bedrooms plus a study, ideal for growing families or guests. Many rooms enjoy green views through three-light mullion windows, while built-in wardrobes and custom cabinetry add practicality. A striking vaulted-ceiling space with exposed beams offers separate access via a second staircase.

Completing the first-floor accommodation is a shower room and the house bathroom. The shower room is fully tiled and features a three-piece suite including a WC, a wash hand basin, and a wall-mounted electric shower. A frosted window to the side elevation adds privacy.

Gardens and grounds

A cobbled driveway provides parking for around 10 cars and leads to a double garage. Beyond, a large stone barn invites the possibility of conversion (subject to necessary consents), while a potting shed and other outbuildings add cottage garden charm.

To the rear, a summerhouse with decking and a hot tub overlooks breathtaking open views – an exceptional setting for summer evenings or your own luxury escape.
