DESCRIPTION

A very well presented and spacious restaurant/bar extending to approximately 3,100 sq ft (GIA), offering a stylish and versatile layout ideal for a range of hospitality uses. The property features a generously sized open plan dining area accommodating a substantial number of covers. Adjoining the main customer area are toilet facilities for patrons and to the rear of there is a fully fitted commercial kitchen.

Additional benefits include secure roller shutter doors and a front terrace area that provides valuable external seating. This combination of internal and external space makes the property particularly attractive for operators seeking a turnkey venue in a sought after location.

LOCATION

The property occupies a highly visible and well positioned spot on North Street, Bedminster. It is conveniently located within close proximity to both Cannon Street and East Street, two key thoroughfares known for their strong mix of retail, hospitality, and community services. This prominent location benefits from high levels of pedestrian and vehicular traffic, making it ideal for businesses seeking strong local exposure and accessibility.
