SUMMARY

LEVEL BUILDING PLOT WITH FULL PLANNING GRANTED FOR CONSTRUCTION OF A THREE-BEDROOM HOUSE

DESCRIPTION

A superb level building plot with full planning consent in place for the construction of a striking contemporary three-bedroom home extending to approximately 123 m² (1,324 sq ft). The site is currently occupied by a large double garage and is bordered on either side by residential dwellings.

The approved design showcases modern, light-filled living, featuring a generous open-plan kitchen/dining/living space with doors opening onto a private rear courtyard garden. The ground floor will also benefit from a convenient cloakroom. Upstairs, the thoughtfully designed layout offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a master bedroom with en-suite, a stylish family bathroom, and a mezzanine study area - perfect for home working.

This is a superb prospect for builders, developers, and self-builders seeking to deliver a distinctive contemporary home, with an anticipated Gross Development Value in the region of £575,000.

Perfectly positioned on the highly desirable borders of Cotham and Montpelier, the site enjoys a vibrant neighbourhood setting and excellent transport connections to Bristol city centre.

LOCATION

The land is accessed from Sydenham Lane, to the rear of 143 Cheltenham Road. The location is convenient for a wide range of local amenities on Gloucester Road and Cheltenham Road, Redland train station and excellent transport links to Bristol city centre.

PLANNING

Full planning permission has been granted for the demolition of existing garages and the construction of a two-storey three bedroom dwelling house accessed from Sydenham Lane.
