De Montfort Way

CV4 7DT

This substantial detached residence offers over 3,800 sq ft of versatile accommodation arranged across three floors, combining spacious family living with excellent leisure facilities including an impressive indoor heated swimming pool.

The ground floor features a welcoming entrance hallway leading through to a generous lounge, a superb open-plan kitchen/living area ideal for modern day entertaining, separate utility room and additional sunroom overlooking the rear aspect. The property further benefits from two ground floor bedrooms, both with en-suite facilities, together with integral garage access and a separate cloakroom/WC.

To the rear of the property is a remarkable indoor heated swimming pool complex with adjoining plant room and bathroom facilities, creating a unique leisure and entertainment space suitable for year-round use.

The first floor provides five well-proportioned bedrooms, several benefiting from en-suite shower rooms, together with a modern family bathroom and central landing area. The layout offers flexible accommodation ideal for larger families or multi-generational living.

De Montfort Way is located in the sought-after Cannon Park area of Coventry, a well-established residential neighbourhood popular with families, professionals and students due to its convenient location and excellent local amenities. The area offers a suburban feel with a mix of detached homes, green spaces and quiet residential streets, while still being within easy reach of Coventry city centre and the University of Warwick.

The property is well positioned for a range of highly regarded schools including Cannon Park Primary School, Finham Park School, Coventry, The Westwood Academy and Templars Primary School, making the area particularly attractive for families with children.

Residents benefit from excellent shopping facilities nearby including Cannon Park Shopping Centre, which provides a range of supermarkets, cafes, restaurants and everyday retail stores. Additional convenience shopping is available at Tesco Superstore, ALDI and Seoul Plaza.

Coventry city centre is easily accessible by car and public transport, offering extensive shopping, dining and leisure facilities including West Orchards Shopping Centre and Lower Precinct Shopping Centre. The area also benefits from good road links to the A45, A46 and Coventry Ring Road, providing convenient access across the city and surrounding areas.
