Burgess & Co are delighted to present a rarely available, extended three bedroom semi-detached family home located in the idyllic village of Hooe. The local village public house (Red Lion) is opposite the property and within 5 miles is Bexhill Town Centre with its array of shopping facilities, restaurants, mainline railway station, popular schools and seafront. The accommodation comprises a living room, a large fitted kitchen, a rear porch space with scope to create downstairs WC (subject to the relevant building regulations), a large additional living room/dining room and a large family/sun room. To the first floor there are three DOUBLE bedrooms and a fitted family bathroom. The property additionally benefits from electric central heating system and double glazed windows. To the front there is a good size driveway providing off road parking, a side pathway and to the rear there is a glorious well established garden enjoying a south-easterly aspect, leading to a brick outbuilding and timber shed. Viewing is highly recommended by vendors sole agents.
