CHAIN FREE Burgess & Co are delighted to bring to the market a rare opportunity to acquire this elevated thatched (Grade II Listed) semi detached cottage which enjoys far reaching uninterrupted countryside views. The property is located in the idyllic and sought after village of Burwash which retains a good village atmosphere, an array of independent shops, a church, a popular primary school, a medical centre and various recreational facilities. The High Street is lined with lime trees and retains mainly period properties. Batemans, the family home of world-famous writer Rudyard Kipling, now a national trust property, with its extensive gardens and land forms the views this house benefits from which are in an area of outstanding natural beauty. There are many local public footpaths, two local pubs and two main line railway stations at Stonegate or Etchingham, both serving London Bridge, Cannon Street and Charing Cross. The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, kitchen/breakfast room, living/dining room with library area, fitted family bathroom and access to a cellar. To the first floor there are two double bedrooms, separate w.c and to the top floor there is another double bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe. Further benefits include gas central heating, original windows with leaded features, inglenook fireplace and many other period features typical for this age. To the outside there are large SOUTH FACING gardens that surround the side and rear of the property which sits on a third of an acre with stunning far reaching views and there is a detached DOUBLE GARAGE, large workshop/outbuilding, greenhouse and summer house. Viewing is considered essential to appreciate this wonderful property.
