3-Bedroom Shared Ownership Homes in North Chippenham

New 3-bedroom shared ownership homes are now available on a fantastic development in North Chippenham. Set close to the beautiful Wiltshire countryside, the homes are also within walking distance of local amenities, making them ideal for families and first-time buyers.

Chippenham is a historic market town offering a great choice of schools, supermarkets, retail parks, parks and open spaces, along with regular community events. The town also benefits from excellent transport links, with a mainline railway station providing connections towards London and the West, and the M4 just 4 miles away.

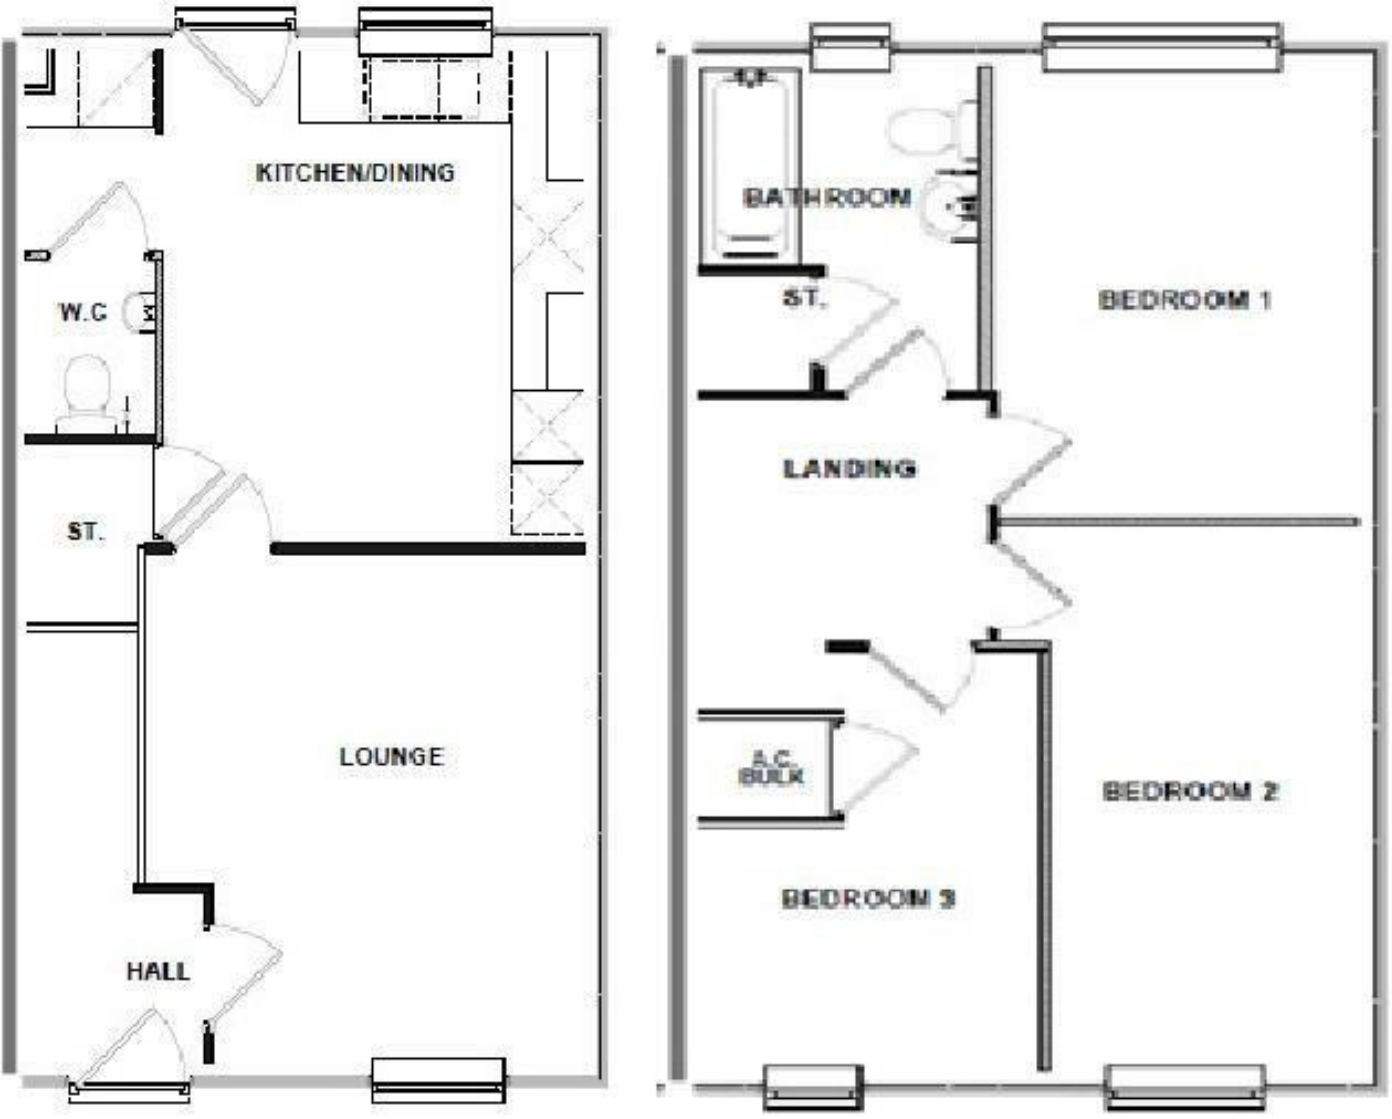

Located around 13 miles from Bath and under 90 miles from central London, these homes offer a great balance of countryside living, local amenities and convenient access to major towns and cities.
