With no upward chain, this delightful cottage is perfect for those looking for a character property in a vibrant Derbyshire town.

Location

Fern cottage enjoys the best of both worlds – the peace of the surrounding Derbyshire countryside and the convenience of town living. Just a short stroll from the centre of Wirksworth, you'll find a vibrant community with everything you need for day-to-day life, including a weekly market, monthly farmers' market, independent shops, restaurants, cafés, traditional pubs, a cinema, library, leisure centre, and key services such as a medical centre, dental practices, and schools.

For outdoor enthusiasts, the location is truly idyllic. Scenic walks begin right from the doorstep, including routes through Stoney Wood, up to the Star Disc, and along the High Peak Trail, offering miles of picturesque countryside to explore. Further afield, the nearby market towns of Ashbourne and Matlock provide additional amenities, while the cities of Derby, Nottingham, and Sheffield are all within easy reach by car. Just a few minutes away, Carsington Water offers a host of outdoor activities including walking, cycling, wildlife watching, and water sports.

Ground Floor

To the front of the home is a solid wooden entrance door with fanlight window above. This opens into the

Entrance Hallway

Arranged over two levels and having tiled flooring, the entrance hallway features an impressive pitch pine staircase leading up to the first floor. Beneath this is a useful storage cupboard, ideal for coats and footwear. To the rear, a wide panelled and glazed door provides access to the exterior. Adjacent to the front entrance door is access to the

Sitting Room 15'10" x 11'3" (4.83m x 3.44m)

A good sized reception room, full of character. Having windows to three elevations fills the space with plenty of natural light and the gable window in particular offers an excellent view of the church tower and the valley beyond. A gritstone fire surround and hearth houses an attractive dog grate, creating a pleasant focal point. The room features a striking beamed ceiling, adding to its period charm and additional features include a fitted pine corner cupboard, an alcove with built-in shelving, and a combination of wall lights and ceiling fittings.

Inner Hallway

Near the rear entrance door is an opening to this inner hall area which has a deep alcove fitted with shelving. A door opens to the kitchen and double doors to the

Shower Room 5'6" x 4'9" (1.70m x 1.45m)

With a continuation of the tiled flooring, this room is fitted with a three piece suite comprising low flush WC, pedestal wash hand basin and a corner shower cubicle with Triton electric shower.

Kitchen 12'2" x 8'7" (3.72m x 2.63m)

The kitchen features tiled flooring and has three windows to the side aspect, offering plenty of natural light. It is fitted with a range of base units and work surfaces, along with an inset sink and mixer tap. There is space and plumbing for both a washing machine and a dishwasher, as well as a fitting for a gas cooker. Additional space is available for a freestanding fridge freezer. A built-in cupboard with shelving provides useful extra storage.

To the rear of the room is a glazed panelled door opening into the Dining Room 12'3" x 8'7" (3.74m x 2.63m)

A light and airy space, the dining room benefits from glazed panelled French doors to the side, providing direct access to the exterior and allowing natural light to flood the room. The high ceiling enhances the sense of space, and two impressive exposed ceiling timbers add to the charm and character.
