Location

Holloway is a pretty and popular village in Amber Valley and a short distance from the Derbyshire Dales and Peak District National Park, you'll find fantastic scenic walks right on the doorstep. There is an excellent butchers shop and cafe within the village and nearby Crich offers even more amenities. The local pub 'The Jug & Glass' is located in the village of Lea and just over the hill is Lea Gardens, a beautiful Rhododendron gardens with an excellent cafe. Dethick, Lea & Holloway are a thriving community, organising many events throughout the year and there's an Ofsted 'Outstanding' rated primary school within easy walking distance. There is good road access from Holloway to many towns in the area such as Wirksworth, Matlock and Belper, with Derby and Chesterfield a little further afield. The nearest railway stations are Whatstandwell and Cromford which provide links to main line services at Derby - London St Pancras is just 1 hour 35 minutes by train.

Directional Notes

From our office in Wirksworth market place we would advise driving in the direction of Cromford and at the traffic lights at the bottom of the hill turn right onto the A6. Continue on the A6 until crossing the bridge and reaching The Family Tree tea rooms in Whatstandwell. As the road bears to the right, take the left hand turn towards Crich. After a short distance, turn left onto Robin Hood Road and continue, where the road becomes Leashaw Road. Continue up the hill and the road becomes Bracken Lane. Upon reaching the junction, turn left onto Yew Tree Hill, then take the second right onto Church Street, after a short distance you will find a left hand turning for The Hollins and number 15 can be found near the bottom on the left hand side as identified by our For Sale board.
