About Carsington Village

Carsington is a small village in an area of delightful countryside in the middle of the Derbyshire Dales. It is within easy travelling distance of local centres including Wirksworth (2 miles), Matlock (6 miles), the famous market town of Ashbourne (7 miles) and the city of Derby (12 miles). There is a bus service running to Matlock and Ashbourne. Carsington has a small church which dates back to the 12th Century and a fine 16th century public house, the Miners Arms. The sought after primary school was rated Good in its last full inspection in May 2024. Close by, at Carsington Water, is a visitor centre with shops, restaurant and adventure playground. As well as the water sports available at the centre there are good waterside footpaths/cycle paths around the reservoir and the area is excellent for wildlife and bird watching.
