Viewing Highly Recommended.

Location

Crich is a scenic and historic village set high in the rolling hills on the edge of the Derbyshire Dales. Once known for lead mining and framework knitting, it is now a vibrant community with a rich heritage, home to the popular Crich Tramway Village and the landmark Crich Stand.

The village offers easy access to Matlock, Belper, Derby, and Nottingham, while providing a wide range of local amenities including well-regarded schools, a medical centre, post office, traditional pubs, a butcher, restaurant, fish bar, general store, and the much-loved bakery café, 'The Loaf'. Surrounded by beautiful countryside, Crich is perfect for those who enjoy walking and rural living with a strong community feel.

The Property

Ground Floor

Entrance Hallway

A welcoming entrance hallway featuring beautiful stone tiled flooring and tongue and groove panelling to both sides, adding character and warmth. A long wooden peg rail provides practical space for coats, bags, or hats. Double doors open to a useful understairs storage area, while the staircase leads up to the first floor. The space is lit by wall lights in addition to a central ceiling light. A door with glazed panels and transom window above opens into the kitchen, with a further door leading to the utility room.

Open Plan Kitchen/Diner 25'5" x 12'7" (7.77m x 3.85m)
