Offers Around £299,995

Located in the hamlet of Parkhead, near Crich, is this detached three bedrooomed bungalow in a good sized plot with excellent far reaching views from all aspects. The accommodation itself briefly comprises entrance hallway, sitting room, kitchen, large sunroom, three bedrooms and a bathroom. The bungalow boasts a delightful lawned garden to the front and a low maintenance space to the rear. The side elevation includes a block-paved driveway that can accommodate four to five vehicles and is enclosed by stone walling. The property is well presented and benefits from double glazing throughout. Viewing highly recommended. No upward chain.

Location

Parkhead is a hamlet located a short distance from Crich, once an industrial town known for its lead and lime mining and framework knitting, now a charming village rich in cultural heritage. It is home to the Tramway Village and the Crich Stand, a clifftop memorial. Crich itself boasts a variety of amenities, including schools, a medical centre, post office, pubs, a butcher, an Indian restaurant, a Fish Bar, a general store, and 'The Loaf,' renowned for its on-site bakery and excellent coffee shop. The location is highly convenient for other surrounding centres including Belper (six miles to the south), Matlock (six miles to the north), Nottingham and Derby. Junction 26 of the M1 Motorway provides fast access to other nearby regional centres and the main motorway network. There is the added benefit that Parkhead itself is on a bus route. With the rolling Derbyshire hills on the doorstep there is no shortage of walks to be enjoyed.
