Location

The property is situated in this lovely small development of Kingsoak Gardens consisting of just three detached properties. Dudley is a large town with plenty of amenities, schools and transport links all close by. The 13th century Dudley Castle overlooks the town, and is a Grade I listed structure. Dudley Zoo is built into the castle grounds, and houses a large collection of endangered species. There are many canals in and around Dudley, the main one being the Dudley Canal – most of which passes beneath the town in the Dudley Tunnel and is accessible only by boat because there is no towpath.

Frontage

The shared drive leads up to the three properties, all owning their own frontages. There is a blocked paved driveway to the property providing off road parking and side access gate leading to the rear garden. Ownership of the property includes the entire frontage with right of way access across the main drive for No.1.
