Dinsdale Hall (often referred to as Dinsdale Park) in Middleton St. George, Darlington, was built around 1829-1830 for the 1st Earl of Durham to serve as a luxurious spa hotel, taking advantage of local sulfur springs discovered in 1789. Since this time. It has since served as a mental health retreat, a special needs boarding school, and a care home before being converted into private residential Homes.

Located to the rear of the main hall, this wing of the main house has been lovingly and expertly converted to a high standard offering fully gated and secure parking for up to 3 vehicles.

There are four well-proportioned bedrooms, (currently the 4th downstairs bedroom is being used as an office space). This home is an entertainers dream, just check out that huge open plan high end Kitchen / dining / 2nd lounge area, serving as the heart of the home!
