Hempstead, ME7 3JE

Guide price £800,000

PRICE GUIDE £800,000 to £850,000. Pollard Estates have the pleasure in marketing this truly stunning detached period farmhouse situated in a quiet rural setting surrounded by countryside in Capstone Valley and Capstone Farm Country Park. With such tremendous kerb appeal, this beautiful family home will be impossible not to fall in love with. This is a wonderful home for all the family to enjoy. Believed to have dated back to the 17th Century, this former farmhouse provides a wealth of period features including a beautiful inglenook fireplace, exposed beams and a traditional working aga. The property features two reception rooms, a kitchen and bathroom as well as four great sized bedrooms. A family home that also benefits from a conservatory, utility room and a basement which is currently being used as a family room/games room. In addition to this amazing house there is also a detached outbuilding on the plot with its own separate entrance and driveway. It has stunning barn style interior and exterior featuring oak flooring, oak skirting, ledge and brace solid oak doors throughout, and a Laura Ashley bathroom suite with porcelain to add to its class and charm. This beautiful outbuilding is ideal for any older members of the family who require peace and privacy yet like the idea of having family being close by, or even used as an additional income source. The plot is a substantial size with plenty of parking. It also offers stables, a vegetable garden and various fruit trees. The location itself provides a selection of picturesque rural walks through local fields, countryside and woodland including Capstone Country Park just across the road. Close by is Hempstead Valley Shopping Centre, some great local schools and motorway access making this your next forever home. NO CHAIN.
