The Old Boys School

A truly rare and unique opportunity to acquire the Former Boys' National School, a distinctive period building steeped in local history and brimming with character. Dating back to the early 19th century, the original school was established in 1820 and served the local community for many decades, with the building being extended as pupil numbers grew. Today, it remains an attractive example of historic architecture, featuring striking polychrome brickwork, decorative stone detailing and an impressive arched window, all contributing to its significant townscape appeal. Occupying a convenient position on West Street, in the heart of the historic market town of Alford, the property enjoys easy access to a wide range of local amenities including independent shops, cafés, supermarkets, healthcare facilities, public transport links and well-regarded schools. The beautiful Lincolnshire Wolds, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, are also just a short drive away, offering miles of scenic countryside and walking routes. This fascinating property presents an exciting restoration or conversion opportunity (subject to the necessary planning permissions) and is ideal for buyers seeking a project with genuine character, history and endless potential. Offered to the market with no onward chain, this is an exceptional opportunity to create something truly special. Early internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the scale, charm and potential of this remarkable property.

Alford

Alford is a charming and historic market town nestled in the Lincolnshire Wolds, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Rich in heritage and community spirit, the town offers a range of independent shops, cafés, schools, and everyday amenities, including the highly regarded Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School, while retaining its traditional market town character. Alford is also well positioned for easy access to the Lincolnshire coast, including the popular seaside resorts of Sutton-on-Sea and Mablethorpe, making it an ideal location for those seeking a balance of countryside living and coastal convenience.
