Nestled in the sought-after rural village of Wood Bevington, this delightful and generously extended five-bedroom character home effortlessly blends rustic charm with spacious, versatile, modern living. Boasting a traditional thatched roof over part of the property and a tiled roof over the other, it combines period character with practical design, with the thatched roof replaced in 2019 and fitted with a fire-retardant underlay.

Set along a quiet country lane, the property is approached via a substantial driveway, leading past a good-sized foregarden bordered by mature trees and providing parking for multiple vehicles, which in turn leads directly to the double garage. This creates both convenience and a strong sense of arrival.

Offering approximately 3,303 sq ft of accommodation over three floors, the property is ideal for modern family life, multi-generational living, or those working from home. A welcoming reception hall leads to a ground floor shower room for convenience. The heart of the home is a generous kitchen/breakfast room, perfect for everyday living and entertaining, with direct access to a separate utility room. A formal dining room flows seamlessly into a substantial sitting room, while a quieter guest lounge provides an intimate reception space. A study and separate office add further flexibility, complemented by a cloakroom.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom suite features a dressing room and well-appointed en-suite bathroom, alongside three further bedrooms served by a family bathroom. A large loft room offers excellent potential as a playroom, hobby space, or additional living area. On the second floor, a further bedroom is set apart from the main accommodation, ideal for guests, older children, or a private workspace.

With mains electricity and water connected and heating via an oil-fired central heating system, the home blends period charm with modern practicality.

Set within approximately 0.3 acres of mature gardens, the property provides a private and peaceful environment for outdoor living. A patio and dedicated seating area create ideal spaces for al fresco dining and entertaining, while the lawned garden is framed by established greenery and mature trees, offering both privacy and a beautiful natural backdrop throughout the seasons.

The double garage provides excellent storage and secure parking, with steps rising to a loft room above. This additional space offers superb flexibility and could be utilised as a home office, studio, hobby room, gym, or additional storage, or other uses subject to any necessary consents — further enhancing the versatility of this already generous home.
