Delph Brow, Skircoat Moor Road

£135,000

Situated in a highly sought-after location at the top of the Park, this well-presented ground floor apartment offers comfortable and convenient living, ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors alike. The apartment has the benefit of secure allocated parking.

The accommodation comprises an inviting open-plan lounge and kitchen area, creating a bright and sociable living space, along with a spacious double bedroom featuring built-in wardrobes, a further single bedroom, and a modern bathroom.

A particular feature of the property is the patio door entrance, providing direct access from the lounge to the communal grounds. The current owners make use of the patio area immediately outside the doors, creating an attractive outdoor seating space; however, prospective purchasers should note that this area does not form part of the property's title deeds.

The apartment enjoys a popular and convenient position with excellent commuter links. Railway stations at both Sowerby Bridge and Halifax provide easy access to Manchester and Leeds, while the M62 motorway network is just a short ten-minute drive away, making this an ideal base for those travelling throughout the region.
