

Norfolk Property online presents this exceptional semi-detached house. Located within a quiet residential close in the popular village of Hevingham, this is an ideal opportunity for any first time buyer or young family. Having been thoughtfully improved by the current owner this home offers a light and stylish finish throughout. Accommodation comprises; entrance hall, generous lounge diner, kitchen and conservatory to the ground floor, with the first floor offering three bedrooms and a stylish bathroom suite. Externally, the property benefits from an en-bloc garage, whilst the rear garden offers a surprising degree of privacy, with a bespoke built cabana, with wood-burning stove, perfect for enjoying an evening outdoors. With potential for further extension and improvement, an internal viewing comes highly recommended.

