The accommodation is well presented throughout and offers a practical layout for modern family living. A central entrance hall gives access to the principal ground floor rooms and staircase to the first floor. The living room is a particularly impressive space, offering ample room for family furniture and enjoying a light aspect from the large front window which frames the wonderful mountain views and the room opens through to the dining area, making it a great space for both everyday living and entertaining.

The dining room is positioned to the rear of the property overlooking the garden and provides ample room for a family dining table. From here a doorway opens into the modern fitted kitchen which offers a range of wall and base units together with generous worktop space. A large rear window overlooks the landscaped garden and there is room for a breakfast table, making it a practical and sociable room. Leading from the kitchen is a useful utility area with plumbing for appliances, an external door to the rear garden and a separate ground floor WC.

The first floor accommodation continues to impress. There are three bedrooms, two of which are comfortable doubles. The main bedroom is a generous double room with fitted storage and a superb view to the front towards the Brecon Beacons. Completely landscaped it offers a large paved seating area immediately outside the house together with raised lawn and additional seating spaces. Enclosed by mature hedging, the garden enjoys an excellent degree of privacy and is perfect for families, entertaining guests or simply sitting back and enjoying the peaceful surroundings.
