The Property

41 Normandie Close is a well maintained and attractively presented detached property, ideally suited to family living, positioned within a popular residential cul-de-sac on the outskirts of the historic town of Ludlow. The property offers generous accommodation set across two floors, complemented by a private rear garden and off-road parking.

On entering the property, you are welcomed into an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor and access to the living spaces. The living room is a comfortable and inviting space, featuring a bay window to the front and a central fireplace with wood-burning stove, creating a lovely focal point and a cosy atmosphere. The kitchen is located at the rear of the property and is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units and benefits from a practical layout, with an adjoining utility room providing further storage, space for appliances and external access. The open plan layout offers ample space for a family dining table and chairs and enjoys direct access into the conservatory, offering a pleasant outlook over the garden and an additional reception space ideal for everyday use.

Accessed from the entrance hall is the converted garage which offers an additional reception room, ideal for home working or as a playroom, along with a convenient downstairs W.C.

Heading upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to four bedrooms, all of which are well proportioned and serviced by a family bathroom fitted with a modern white suite. The main bedroom is a particularly generous double and benefits from its own en-suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms offer flexibility for family members and guests.

Outside, the property enjoys off-road parking to the front, while to the rear is a private and enclosed garden, providing a safe and pleasant environment for children and pets. The garden offers a great space for outdoor seating, entertaining or relaxation during the warmer months.

Overall, 41 Normandie Close is a well presented detached home in a sought-after residential location, offering comfortable family accommodation within easy reach of Ludlow town centre and its excellent range of amenities.

The Town

The quintessential British town of Ludlow is a throwback to the days gone by. You can't help but fall in love with the friendly welcoming townsfolk and the laid back lifestyle which feels a million miles away from the hustle and bustle of the big city. That's not to say that Ludlow is a quiet little backwater, far from it. Hosting the famous Ludlow Food and Drink Festival, Ludlow Spring Festival, May Fair, Ludlow Fringe, Green Fair and the Medieval Christmas Fayre there are events to keep you entertained all year round. There are also countless antique and local produce markets and book, craft and garden fairs. For sport lovers days out at Ludlow Racecourse, Golf Course, Rugby, Cricket, Tennis, Bowling or Football Clubs could await. Then there's the spectacular architecture and countryside that you'll never grow tired of admiring. Ludlow has to be one of the most perfect places to reside in Britain. The county town of Shrewsbury is approximately 28 miles north and the Cathedral City of Hereford is 24 miles south. Both are easily accessible by the mainline rail that runs a frequent service to Manchester, Holyhead and Cardiff from Ludlow station.
