The Property

Tucked away in the enchanting and unspoilt Gwennol Valley, this idyllic 18th Century Georgian character former farmhouse offers a rare opportunity to acquire a peaceful country retreat with exceptional versatility. Set within approximately 1.7 acres of beautifully landscaped gardens and grounds, the property combines rustic charm with modern comfort, making it a perfect family home, lifestyle escape, or potential holiday let investment with a converted three bedroom annexe forming part of the courtyard.

The main residence exudes period character, featuring exposed beams, original stonework, and a welcoming inglenook fireplace, with an original bread oven —ideal for cosy evenings by the fire. Every window frames a view of the surrounding countryside across the valley, creating a serene, storybook setting in every room. The main house offers two bedrooms, with two reception rooms, a light airy kitchen dining room, with superb views across the open fields, a ground floor shower room and first floor bathroom. The house has ample fitted storage and as every Welsh cottage must have, a pantry.

Adding to the property's appeal is a detached three-bedroom annexe, offering flexible accommodation for guests, extended family, or even a rental income opportunity. Bright, spacious, and finished to a high standard, the annexe maintains the character of the main home while offering privacy with a private garden area for guests to relax.

Beyond the living spaces, the grounds include a range of stone outbuildings, perfect for workshop and garage use, additional storage or potential to extend the guest accommodation further (subject to gaining any necessary permission). The gardens themselves are a true delight, sloping with well maintained walk throughout, you can wander aimlessly through the trees in your own little piece of the stunning Welsh countryside. blending mature trees and flowering plants, tucked-away seating areas with sweeping views across the valley.

Directions
From the A40 (Brecon to Llandovery road), take the Babel/Pentre- ty- Gwyn turn off. Over the small bridge, follow the road to the left. Continue on this road without turning off, through the hamlet of Pentre-ty-Gwyn and on to Babel past the red telephone box and down the dip, and up the other side, and turn off left at the Babel Community Hall. Continue on this road past the Pen-y-Waun (Merlin Cottages) turn off, for another 1/3rd mile and then take a sharp right turn signposted Maes-y-Gwaelod down the lane and past the farmer's barn. However, as this is a tight turn, WE RECOMMEND you continue on the road for a further 1/3 mile to a junction where the road widens and you can turn around. You then approach the lane down to the cottage with an easier left hand turn off.
