The Property

Introducing No.6 The Square, which is a 3 storey property located in the heart of historic Clun, which lies on the River Clun and nestled in the picturesque Clun Valley. Set amidst some of the most beautiful and scenic countryside England has to offer, Clun is a close knit and friendly community, which embraces the 'laid back' lifestyle and is found close to the Welsh/English border.

Available to buy with no upward chain, No.6 The Square, formally The Midland Bank, is an ideal investment opportunity and is currently split into a ground floor shop/office space with 2 useful rear store rooms and a 2 bedroom duplex apartment set over the middle and top floors. At the back of the property there is a good-sized garden, while inside countryside views can be enjoyed from the upper floors. The property is just a mere stones throw from the local shop/post office, café, hairdressers and 2 traditional pubs, The White Horse and The Sun Inn. The property does not have designated parking, but unrestricted parking is available directly out front. Offering a variety of purposes, the current mixed commercial and residential layout could remain, or potentially the property could be converted to one larger dwelling set over the 3 floors, or perhaps separated into 2 apartments, both with their own gardens areas, subject to all necessary permissions.

Approached from the roadside pavement, inside an entrance hallway provides access into the shop/office space, the 2 rear store rooms, which subsequently have doors allowing access out the rear garden. Stairs from the entrance hall rise to the middle floor where there is a landing, modern kitchen, bathroom and spacious living room complete with a feature fire. On the top floor, a small landing area gives way to 2 bedrooms.

Outside, the rear garden is worthy of particular note and can be accessed through the ground floor store rooms or via a door off the kitchen on the middle floor. Split into 2 tiers, the lower tiered courtyard garden area is paved for ease of maintenance, while the much larger upper tier which makes up the vast majority of the garden is largely laid to lawn, along with a vegetable patch and a west-facing, paved seating area. Overall the garden has walled, fenced and hedged borders, flowered beds, a variety of mature shrubs and trees and a useful shed.

The Location

Located in the south of the rural county of Shropshire, Clun is a place steeped in history with the remains of a Norman castle, the town hall museum and the 15th century, famous Clun Bridge, just to mention a select few. The town offers plenty of useful facilities including a primary school, a SPAR convenience store with post office, a hair salon, antique shops, a tea room, a number of small business including a business park, a doctors surgery, a fire station, a community centre with a play park, a church, a community hall and 2 public house's called the The Sun Inn & The White Horse, which both offer wonderful home cooked meals as well as a wide selection of locally produced ales and ciders. You will also be able to enjoy the various groups and activities available in the village hall every week or soak up the local culture at one of the number of small festivals carried out in Clun throughout the year including the Green Man festival in May, the Clun Open Gardens in June, the Clun Carnival and Show at the beginning of August and the Clun Valley Beer Festival which takes place in the six open pubs in the valley (from Anchor to Aston on Clun) in October.

Situated within the most stunning countryside setting, Clun is a great place for you to invite visitors to, especially those of an active disposition owing to the famous Offas Dyke trail which runs to the west of the town and as a result presents a variety of outdoor pursuits and is popular with walkers and cyclists. Rural, but by no means isolated Clun is centrally located just 6 miles from the larger market town of Bishops Castle, 7 miles from the border town of Knighton and 9 miles from the town of Craven Arms. Slightly further field finds historic Ludlow town, which is 16 miles away and the county town of Shropshire, Shrewsbury, which lies 25 miles away to the north.
